Put Your Emotional Intelligence to Work

Presented by Travis Bradberry Ph.D., Co-Founder of TalentSmart

An IQ score used to be considered a reliable gauge of how smart and successful someone would be. Today's research shows that another measurement may be more important to consider – EQ, or Emotional Intelligence. Learn about this important capability and what you can do to increase your EQ score.

- Learn about emotional intelligence and how it affects leadership.
- Broaden your awareness of emotional intelligence in the workplace.
- Build your EQ to become a more effective and successful leader.
- Change the way you think about success.

Proven Techniques for Effective Leadership

Presented by Pat Williams, Senior Vice President of the Orlando Magic

Seven practical strategies can help to increase our productivity and leadership ability at work. Learn how to create a personal strategy, communicate effectively with employees and make profitable decisions.

- Find passion in your work.
- Move from dreaming to achieving.
- Find the motivation to put your leadership plans in place.
- Build a winning team.
